The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Year A

13th/14th June, 2020

The Eucharist builds the church

This Sunday we are invited to meditate on the mystery of the Body and Blood of Christ. Before giving himself up for us on the cross, He gave himself as food and drink, nourishment for our pilgrim journey. Jesus' body was broken on the cross; it is broken again each time we eat and drink of his Body and Blood. Jesus invites us on a journey of love. In Jesus, God became human to reveal himself to us, he invites us to participate in this journey of love to share in the divine life. The Eucharist maintains us as we undertake this journey.

The encyclical letter of St. John Paul II "ECCLESIA DE EUCHARISTIA" clearly states that the Church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the Church. In a variety of ways she joyfully experiences the constant fulfilment of the promise: " I am with you always, to the close of the age" (Mt 28:20), but in the Holy Eucharist, through the changing of bread and wine into the body and blood of the Lord, she rejoices in this presence with unique intensity. Ever since Pentecost, when the Church, the People of the New Covenant, began her pilgrim journey towards her heavenly homeland, the Divine Sacrament has continued to mark the passing of her days, filling them with confident hope.

The Second Vatican Council rightly proclaimed that the Eucharistic sacrifice is "the source and summit of the Christian life". "For the most holy Eucharist contains the Church's entire spiritual wealth: Christ himself, our passover and living bread."

Jesus gives his very life to give us life. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ becomes truly present in the Eucharistic species. In the Consecration, the earthly species [i.e. bread and wine] are transformed into a real body and blood of Jesus to become our bread of life and spiritual drink - a gift from God to us. This is how he gives his flesh for us to be eaten, and this is how he gives out his blood for us to drink. This is how he wants us to enjoy eternal life with him. We are so lucky that we could come back to the church and receive Jesus again.

This Eucharist makes us one, in the body of Christ. This unity then sustains and strengthens us to go on in our mission of promoting the cause of God, the cause of peace, justice, and unity, that is why the title of the second chapter of Ecclesia de Eucharistia is posted as The Eucharist Builds the Church.

So as we continue to celebrate our solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us thank God for this great and special gift of the Eucharist, a gift that assured us not only to survive and to live but also a gift of everlasting life. Let us then make this solemnity a resolution to be more active in our participation in every celebration of the Holy Eucharist we take part. O sacrament Most Holy, O sacrament divine, all praise and thanksgiving every moment are yours.

Readings: Twelfth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Romans 5:12-15

Matthew 10:26-33

READINGS FOR THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

First Reading Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart – whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

'Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

Responsorial Psalm

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jews:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.
Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever;
and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life,
and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father,
so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven;
not like the bread our ancestors ate:

they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever

Congratulations on Your Appointments

Archbishop Mark has appointed Sr Mel Williams as the Vicar for Religious in the Archdiocese. She said it was a pastoral role that included "fostering good relations between the bishop and the (religious) communities, keeping the superiors informed about diocesan life ..., and things like promoting consecrated or religious life".

Although being present in our Parish for some time Deacon Des has now been officially appointed to our parish for his ministry.

Congratulations and prayerful wishes to you both.

With the postponement of its annual conference Ignite Youth is currently in conversations for alternate events to run, and how they might best serve the youth of this Archdiocese and Australia. For us in this Parish, I'm excited for the future opportunities we will have, and I will be keeping my ear to the ground for additional options for our Parish.
